Poulson Asked To Weed Out Democratic Slate To Present Harmonious Primary Front

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O March 14—Ohio's gubernatorial contest between Gov Martin L Davey and Attorney General Stephen M Young went into high gear today as the primary interparty battle for selection of candidates for November election

Strong new deal support for his candidacy petitions filed before Friday's deadline dramatized immediately for attention with the assertion Ohio's next governor

Faced with a wide open party fight Gov Davey turned to Democratic Chairman Francis W Poulson who said we'll try to get a semblance of a sane ticket by ironing out casualties in order to present a harmonious front in the primary

Harrison Bows Back Stop

Viewed as a back stop for Young was Marvin C Harrison of Cleveland In political circles Harrison's entry is a move to split opposition for Davey Charles P Bulkley of Cleveland a frequent candidate for various offices also entered the race

The Republican organization appeared behind the candidacy of Attorney General John W Bricker for governorship nomination His backers a 34 year-old Defiance lawyer C W Kimble Townsend a film supporter

Democrats and 11 Republicans seeking the two nominations on each party left the congressional race wide open Two of the term positions will be filled November 3 and two Columbus men will seek the seat vacated by Congressman at Large Charles H Brand of Bucyrus died last August It will be a short term

Poulson to Meet Candidates

Chairman Poulson planned conferences with various candidates before he said would be designed to reconcile as many as possible to withdraw in order to avert contests that might endanger party unity

This doesn't mean incumbents only

One of Poulson's chief harmony problems will revolve about the Democratic candidates for renomination as state auditor Representative Joseph T Tracy who has held the position 15 years was expected in his party

Among the six was George Eppert chairman of Ohio's liquor board and vigorous supporter of Davey administration Others were Joseph A Lutz Montgomery county auditor Jacob C Mong

Thirteen of the dead were lost in Eastern Canada five of them children of one family who were swept away with their home in Quebec last night

Four in Family Dead

Four members of the Guy Boop family died at Kingston Pa of asphyxiation blamed on the destructive action of the Susquehanna at their home where flood waters broke gas connections

Forecasts of additional rains in Pennsylvania added to the fears of the residents of the region threatened by the Susquehanna where eight power boats and 30 men of the Lake Erie coast guard district were en route to aid in rescuing the marooned

In upper New York state a blizzard replaced floods as the chief cause for concern Two men were killed when their car was struck by a train near Buffalo in a blinding snow storm The heavy precipitation was accompanied by a 59-mile wind

RELIEF PROMISES TO BE KNOTTY JOB

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON March 14—Evidence of administration concern over the problem of relief was seen today in the failure after four White House conferences to reach a final decision on how much extra money will be asked from congress.

Whether $1,000,000,000 would be requested in President Roosevelt's relief message next week or a figure approximating the $2,300,000,000 demanded by the United States conference of mayors, was a question that Harry L. Hopkins declined to answer last night.

Petitions Filed for Ballot on Liquor Question

Marion Township Will Have First Local Option Vote In Twenty Years

Final action calling for a vote to determine whether intoxicating liquor shall be sold in Marion township outside the Marion city limits was taken yesterday when petitions were filed with the county board of elections calling for such a vote

Election board officials today were studying the state law to determine whether the vote will be taken at the May 12 primaries or carried over until the general election in November

The petition really amounts to a local option movement in reverse as the territory is now dry It was said today that this was the first local option vote here for more than 20 year

Only residents of the township outside Marion will be eligible to vote on the question as the vote on the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment in the city three years ago permits the sale on liquor within the corporation In the township repeal was defeated and as a consequence the sale of beverages stronger than 3.2 per cent beer has been prohibited The anti-repeal element won in the 1933 election by four votes the north precinct of the township voting wet by three votes and the south precinct voting dry by a majority of seven

Despite the fact that the north precinct vote favored repeal the sale of liquor has been prohibited in the entire township This point was established by a state supreme court ruling which held that the entire township outside corporation limits was the liquor control district The case which established judicial precedent in Ohio originated here when the Olympic club on route 30-S west of the city and in the north precinct brought action to force the state liquor board to issue a license to sell spirituous liquor The supreme court upheld the liquor board in its refusal to issue the license

Circulators of the local option petitions it is known by the records in the office of the board of elections were L L Stanley of 143 West Columbia street Lloyd De Golley of 147 North Main street Oscar Jenner of 148 Canby court and W W Bodley of near Marion Sale of intoxicating liquors in the township would benefit a number of barbecues and road houses situated short distances outside the city limits

Five questions will be submitted to the voters on the local option ballots The questions are

Shall the sale of any intoxicating liquor be permitted in Marion township outside the city limits of Marion?

Shall the sale of wine by the package for consumption off the premises where sold be permitted in Marion township?

Shall the sale of wine for consumption on and off the premises where sold be permitted in Marion township?

Shall the sale of spirituous liquors by the glass be permitted in Marion township?

Shall be establishment of state liquor stores for sale of spirituous liquor by the package for consumption off the premises where sold be permitted in Marion township

COUNTY'S YEARLY AGE PENSION TOTAL $154,000

855 Now on Roll Here, Administrator Reports; Average Monthly Payment $15.03.

Eight hundred and fifty-five Marion county residents are drawing $154,000 a year in state old age pensions according to a report compiled by James L. Kirby county administrator, on the second anniversary of the establishment of the pension system Monthly payments are made at the rate of $12,820 a month, Mr Kirby's report shows

The state system was established in March of 1934.

The Marion pension office, now located in the Marion building on South Main street, was opened May 21, 1934, and the first pension payment was made Aug. 1 of the same year.

For the state as a whole the average pension payment is $13.67 a month, according to information supplied Mr. Kirby by the state pension office. The heaviest payments were in November, 1935, when 26[illegible] persons received $1,200,085 75 This figure is in striking contrast to the payments for the first month July 1934, when 1,000 persons received $13,000.00

Pension officials say they hope that with the granting of federal aid for pensions under the national social security act in 1936 the average will be still further increased

Representatives of the social security board from Washington are now in Columbus perfecting the final details of approval of the state pension system, as a prelude to a federal grant of funds expected to aggregate $3,000,000 or more for the first year.

The pension unit of administration has been set up locally, during the last three years a total of [illegible] persons have been given old age pensions, [illegible] dying [illegible] was only [illegible] receiving regular checks.

250 Hear Conservation Leaders Speak at LaRue

Representatives of State Department and Ozark Ripley, Outdoor Enthusiast, Address Club.

Two hundred and fifty persons attending the annual banquet of the LaRue Sportsmen's club at the high school auditorium in LaRue last night heard Ozark Ripley a nationally known writer and speaker on wild life tell of his interesting experiences with rod and reel and James W Stuber head of the educational division of the state department of conservation outline a new program the department has undertaken

At the opening of the meeting club officers who for several months have been working in the interests of a WPA program to construct 15 dams on the Scioto river Rush and McDonald creeks announced that preliminary work on the dams was started this week

The club has acted as sponsor of the project providing approximately $1 500 in funds and materials The program will keep 30 men employed most of the spring and summer Stones and logs to be used in the construction of dams are being assembled at the proper places Work was begun Wednesday

Game As Second Crop

Mr Stuber said the department has undertaken a program in which it hopes to enlist the aid of both sportsmen and farmers in the production of wild life on Ohio farms, virtually as a secondary crop and the improvement and development of habitat and environment suited to wild life

The shortage of game is not due to the hunters guns which take only about three per cent of the death toll among wild life each year as much as to the destruction in recent years of proper cover natural foods and shelter Mr Stuber asserted

He turned to figures in mathematics to illustrate one of the many ways in which the department hopes to train the help of farmers in making Ohio a better state for wild life There are 288 000 farms in Ohio he said Each farm has an average of five cats—some as many as 1 or 20 The United States department of agriculture tells us that you can expect every cat to kill 50 valuable game birds a year We're going to ask farmers to get rid of surplus cats

Cats dogs and crows take a greater toll of wild life every year than hunters

BREAK FOLLOWS LEAGUE'S OFFER TO MEET NAZIS

Council Asks Hitler To Send Envoy to London for Discussion of Problems.

EDEN ASSURES ACCORD

Reichsfuehrer in Munich for Campaign Speech and Is Expected To Answer League.

(Copyright 1936, Associated Press.)

France announced tonight its willingness to consider an alternate plan whereby Germany might retain her troops in the Rhineland

This break in the critical European situation which until now, has seen France and Germany bitterly at odds over the question of German troops on the French border came after the League of Nations council meeting in London had made a friendly gesture to Germany

The council asked that Reichsfuehrer Hitler send a representative to London to talk with the league representatives who decided that Germany had violated her treaty obligations by moving soldiers into the long demilitarized zone of the Rhineland

Said a French spokesman "We do not want to stick blindly to our insistence on evacuation if we can get something better"

Eden Assures Germans

Sitting in the drawing room of historic St James palace in London the delegates in the council meeting heard Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of Great Britain assure Germany of fullest cooperation in the building of a new peace structure

The grim implications of the situation created by Germany's dispatching of troops into the zone demilitarized by the Versailles treaty which ended the World war—the status quo being confirmed by the violated Locarno pact—were emphasized by France and Belgium.

They joined in a demand that the league condemn the reich as a breaker of treaties Eden agreed that an incontestable breach of treaties has been committed but in a conciliatory vein added the peace of Europe depended on the wisdom of the council's actions

May Drop Sanctions

France unbent enough members of that country's delegation said to consider abandonment of a demand for sanctions against Germany if she could obtain a definite military agreement with Britain. A spokesman emphasized, however, that the nations must adhere to the Locarno pact of 1925

The council's invitation decided on in private session followed a dramatic hint from French foreign Minister Pierre Etienne Flandin at a public session that France might find brutal, decisive measures necessary

Berlin Silent to British Proposal

(Copyright, 1936, Associated Press)

BERLIN, March 14 — Momentary silence greeted the League of Nations council invitation to Germany to participate in discussions of the Rhineland problem today as the reich uncovered a scheme for fortifying the area with a chain of pillboxes

Word of the council's decision in London reached the Wilhelmstrasse just as Chancellor Adolf Hitler was racing by air to Munich to deliver an address in anticipation of the forthcoming elections.

Both foreign office and propaganda ministry officials said that not until Hitler arrived in Munich and considered the situation could any statement be issued outlining Germany's attitude toward the invitation.

A visit by the Italian ambassador to Berlin, Bernardo D Attolico, to the foreign office gave rise to the belief that he had assured the German government Italy is unlikely to join in any move to impose sanctions against the reich for violating the Locarno pact and the Versailles treaty in remilitarizing the Rhineland.

Though Hitler's scheduled address was hinged on the elections, it was expected to be another pronouncement to which the ears of the world would be attuned.

NEWS OF STAGE AND SCREEN—MARION THEATER PROGRA

STATE BOOKS GOOD SHOWS

"Clive of India" and Edward Everett Horton Comedy on Next Week.

The Edward Everett Horton comedy, "His Night Out" and the Peggy Conklin-Lloyd Nolan "One-Way Tickets" will be at the State Sunday and Monday and on the next two days there will be a return showing of "Clive of India," one of Ronald Colman's best pictures.

Beautiful Irene Hervey is Horton's foil in "His Night Out." It's a comedy about a man suffering the delusion that he is ill and when a "phoney" physician tells him he is about to die—can last only three months at the outside—his whole attitude toward life changes. He goes spendthrift in a big way in the Horton manner. Jack LaRue, Robert McWade and Lola Lane are others in the cast.

Walter Winchell has been tossing orchids to Peggy Conklin, of the "One-Way Ticket" cast. He likes her "veddy, veddy much." Lloyd Nolan, and Walter Connolly are the male leads in the picture, which tells of two lovers who defied the criminal code for a few fleeting hours of freedom.

Loretta Young, Colin Clive, Francis Lister, C. Aubrey Smith and Cesar Romero are prominent among the 72 principals in "Clive of India," the Colman starring picture. The picture records the life of one of history's famous men. Clive rose from a $25 a year clerk in the East India Company to conqueror of a nation. The picture stresses the private life of England's great hero and the part his lovely wife played in his triumphs and defeats. A Ken Maynard western, "Heir to Trouble," will be on the same bill.

A racing, rollicking comedy "$1,000 a Minute," will return Thursday through Saturday on a bill with a Tom Tyler western "Fast Bullets."

Roger Pryor, Leila Hyams, Edgar Kennedy, Edward Brophy, Burnell Pratt and Sterling Holloway cavort in "$1,000 a Minute." The fun revolves around Pryor and a bet that he can't spend $1,000 a minute for 12 straight hours—a matter of $720,000 to be gotten rid of under conditions that do not permit him to tell anyone about the bet; the money must be spent in a normal manner—no investments or gifts; only one purchase of a kind; he must personally inspect each article; he must obtain a signed receipt for each item; he can't leave the state.

MAE WEST, M'LAGLEN BOOKED AT PALACE

Curvaceous Mae West has Victor McLaglen, virile hero of "The Informer" as her chief male menace in "Klondike Annie," which will be on the Palace screen Sunday through Wednesday.

Latest Mae West Comedy on Four-Day Palace Bill

She Appears With Victor McLaglen in "Klondike Annie;" Jim Thorpe in Cast.

Mae West's latest comedy "Klondike Annie," will sizzle on the Palace screen for four days starting Sunday, and will be followed on Thursday, Friday and Saturday by one of the newest of the musicals, "The Music Goes 'Round."

Miss West wrote her own story and again she's a gay and ornamental gal of the '90's with Victor McLaglen as her principal foil. McLaglen plays the role of the captain of the steamer on which the dazzling blond escapes from a Barbary Coast gambling house. "Why should I make 99 guys unhappy, just to marry one?" That was her answer when a reporter interviewed her on the "Klondike Annie" set and asked why she remained single. "I've never married," she explained "because I've never met a man I liked well enough to marry."

Trixie Friganza, veteran comedienne who appeared in Marion years ago, plays one of the leading roles and the picture also marks the comeback of Conway Tearle, one of the most popular of the silent screen stars. Tearle is one of three men—McLaglen and Phillip Reed are the others—who make love to Miss West.

Miss West, a sports fan all her life, makes it a point to see that her friends from the world of sports always get a "break" when she has anything to say about it.

Jim Thorpe Has Part

Consequently Jim Thorpe, who was around LaRue and Marion for several years and who is hailed by many as the greatest athlete who ever lived, will be seen in the picture, as will "Beans" Reardon, National league umpire who was wintering in Hollywood when the film was made, "Hank" Hankinson, heavyweight boxer, Billy McGowan, former middleweight champion of the south, "Dink" Templeton, former University of Southern California football star and Joe Richie, who has six times battled for ring titles.

Richman has long been considered one of the country's premier entertainers, whether in George White's "Scandals," on the radio, in night clubs, or in musical comedies.

New Jazz Feature

The band of Farley and Riley is known as a "Swing Band," something new in the world of jazz. Some of the new songs of the the show are "The Music Goes 'Round and 'Round", "Life Begins When You're In Love," "There'll Be No South," "Susannah," "Let's Go" and "Rolling Along."

The picture tells the story of a Broadway musical comedy star who gets stranded in a tiny southern town and falls in love with the daughter of a showboat owner.

For outright laughs, the picture offers Lionel Stander, the pug ugly comedian who steals scenes right and left. Stander really started out in life to be a certified public accountant but somehow or other he got into writing feature articles for the New York American and then after a short talk with the editor he found his services were no longer required. To eat three meals a day and have a roof over his head at night, he decided to try the stage and found himself in the work that has become his career.

SYNOPSIS Miss Ella Lanning in a rather masculine woman's way reigning in defense of her family which is impoverished but aristocratic and in defense of her dead brother whom she thought was a genius Miss Ella has sacrificed her brother William and her niece Iris to her gods now Iris finds she has even been deceived Her brother Owen did not die in childhood she learns but is probably alive and well Morgan Black Miss Ella's one boarder tells Iris he will find her brother

CHAPTER EIGHT

New Plans

OH MORGAN thank you! And forgive me for being so horrid to you

Morgan tightened his arms about Iris before he released her

There's nothing to thank me for You've never been horrid he said inadequately

Let's go downstairs Let's begin right away she said

As he followed her slim erect figure flying lightly down the crazy attic stairs he realized that he was—in spite of everything—in spite of his cynicism and bitterness and everything in his past in love again In love with Iris Lanning

But I won't tell her so How do I know she's any honester than the rest of them? I'll wait—I'll see her through this queer affair It wouldn't be decent not to help her But I'll wait he told himself

Nevertheless he quickened his steps following her

They shut themselves in that sacred and only private place the salon parlor that had been her father's studio and eagerly leafed Ella Lanning's scrapbook over together

It's here all right Morgan said She didn't lie to you She never has actually He read the yellowed scrap aloud

Jean Rosa Lanning Suddenly June 12 1917 Aged 28

There was no more than that And then Josie Rose—

She's your aunt you know As much your aunt as Miss Ella

Why so she is If she's alive She must have gone away and taken little Owen

He smiled

Little Owen must be twenty four now"

Oh he must be somewhere Suddenly she was crying Morgan Morgan I can understand Aunt Ella—she's never cared for anything but Daddy But Uncle Will—not to tell me—

Morgan laid a gentle hand on her quivering shoulder She was crouched in her father's sacred armchair her tossed unfashionable lovely hair down over her hands that hid her face He hoped his love did not show in the tone in which he answered her

It's because they all loved you so they were afraid if you knew you had people somewhere else they'd lose you

But that wasn't honest she cried out You wouldn't do a thing like that to anybody would you?

The innocently implied faith in him thrilled him He answered honestly

I would try not to"

As he spoke he remembered that he had no choice about trying Before he knew he loved her he had given her his word that he would find her brother for her

She sat up found a handkerchief and began settling herself in order

"The girls you know don't cry do they" she demanded trying to smile.

"Only when they're angry You're natural Iris I want you to be just the way you are!

Something in his look made her drop her eyes

Everybody does The way people want foreigners to go on wearing national costumes in America And I hate it the way they must hate it Don't think I'm foolish Morgan But I've been picturesque and Victorian all my life You wouldn't like going round in side-whiskers and a stock even if it was awfully becoming

He laughed at her she was so pretty and so gallant and so alive sitting up in the big chair roused and ardent

Of course I wouldn't"

What do you think Owen is like she demanded Do you suppose he'll like me? Don't you think it's wonderful having a long lost brother like a fairytale ahead of you"

Morgan's less hopeful mind foresaw possibilities he would not offer her a day laborer an asylum reared child perhaps one of the jagged hopeless young men hanging about employment agencies

Perhaps he'll be like you Perhaps he'll be like your mother's people he answered He ought to be fond of you—people are But Iris don't put your hopes too high It's so long ago perhaps I mayn't be able to find any trace

She shook her head

The aunt that went away with him was younger than Aunt Ella She might be alive too Oh find out everything you can from Uncle Will I don't want to talk to him about it he's always so gentle or I'm afraid I'd get angry and scold him for not telling me Please find out why he never told me

Her trust in her people he saw was shaken

After all your father didn't tell you Perhaps he wouldn't let your uncle

Her face lighted Oh that was it that must have been it After all it is a father's place to say about things isn't it"

She was so eager to believe in them

Of course he said furious meanwhile at the unfairness for her I'll find out for you the first minute I can

It was a good deal to do to demand of that proud gentle old man so intimate a thing But the next night when they were together after dinner he did it He was as his habit had become helping Uncle Will with some bricfing Iris was still in the kitchen helping her aunt with the dishes

He laid down the fountain pen with which he had been making notes from the law book, and looked across

Mr Lanning there's something Iris wants to know and she's so fond of you she can't bear to ask you herself I know I'm barging in unforgivably—if it were for any one but Iris She found out yesterday that the brother she thought dead is still alive I've promised to help her find him I have to tell you—and ask you for any data you have about him

Uncle Will took it quietly except ing for a whitened face and a trembling of the long wrinkled ivory hands moving among the papers

Is she angry? he asked I couldn't bear to have her angry"

No He felt as if he were sitting in judgment, and he hated it. She's hurt but she thinks there must be a good reason

My poor little girl! There's a reason but I don't know how good she'll think it is My brother was so afraid that if she knew about any of it she would go away from him He made us promise He—he was a person of great charm my brother and of immense talent."

Morgan wanted to cry out "But he's dead! He did not. He only asked quietly Can you tell me then anything that will help me to find your nephew?"

"The last time I saw him was in Philadelphia, after Jean's death The next time I went Josephine had moved leaving no address I—had still hoped I—cared for Josephine."

"And yet you gave her up!" He could not help it.

"My brother's talents made my financial help necessary" Uncle William stiffened "I never gave her up. I hoped on till she terminated the engagement."

Morgan did not pursue [illegible] further. The story was [illegible] Ella [illegible] right." He put out the hand that had been leafing over the briefs and took Morgan's.

Iris in the kitchen was saying nothing about any of it to her aunt Miss Ella was just as usual The scene had passed When you have lived with any one all your life routine holds you Iris was used to her aunt she loved her She was used to having everything sacrificed for her father's "genius" And so, instead of demanding or reproaching she took for granted the fact that Miss Ella always had put her father first and always would, and talked about the dishes and the next day's dinner

Morgan gets a highly important letter Monday

MOTHER WINS SON'S CUSTODY

George W Borg Loses Battle To Get 15-Month-Old Grandson

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO March 14—Pretty Juanita Borg 19 won a complete victory yesterday in her court battle with her millionaire father-in-law George W Borg for custody of her 15-month-old son

Denying the petition of the manufacturer who is chairman of the Borg-Warner Co for a habeas corpus writ for return of the boy Judge Michael Feinberg held "the right of a child to a mother's care supersedes even the advantages which an indulgent grandparent could provide and sustained her right to keep the infant she took from the Borg summer home in Delavan Wis last summer

She's Very Happy

Ending of the two-day court hearing in her favor brought from the young mother only the comment that she was very happy

She hid her face in her hands and wept Friends led her to an ante-room where her blond 15-month-old son played seriously with his shoes

Her father-in-law whose "good intentions Judge Feinberg said he had no intention of reflecting on accepted the ruling willingly he said

I only wanted to discharge my responsibilities under the Wisconsin guardianship

Judge Feinberg's decision made it plain he was ruling only on the matter of custody of young George Marshall Borg Jr., here

On Basis of Wardship

It was on the basis of the legal wardship established for him over the child last summer in Walworth county Wisconsin that the senior Borg sought a writ for the boy's return from his mother He claimed she was an unfit person to have charge of the rearing

To this Judge Feinberg's opinion said there was not even a mention of the lack of moral appreciation on the part of the mother

Mr Borg has lived his life in raising his own family and I think he makes a grievous mistake in trying to raise an infant added the judge

Government operatives surrounded the apartment building in Brooklyn where he was captured and filled the lower floor with tear gas bombs. With drawn guns they advanced into the building to meet the man they have hunted for more than a year as one of the most notorious bandits in the country.

They exhibited his record which includes a dozen arrests for various charges and allegations that he took part in two score bank robberies

Government agents said Vermont authorities probably would be given the first opportunity to have him extradited there under a Danville bank robbery charge.

Good Intentions

A SERMONETTE

BY HAROLD B. TWINING

Pastor the Emmanuel Baptist Church.

"The good that I would I do not.—Romans 7 19

THE world is full of people of good intentions How easy for us to sit in Gods house under the inspiration of a religious service and a heart stirring message and decide what good things we are going to do It is easy thus to decide now we are going to enrich other lives by being a real neighbor to them by practicing the golden rule upon them Yet how natural it seems for those good intentions to never come to maturity to fall so short of completion

On a tombstone was found this inscription Here lies a man of the best intentions Such words at first may appear to hold comfort but upon deeper contemplation to speak of tragedy Is it not a tragedy for one to decide to do good and do it not?

The scripture saith 'To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not to him it is sin

May God help us to put the good intentions we have regarding ourselves and others into activity transforming them from thoughts to deeds Lives with the best of intentions can be blasted as a result of failure to put thought into action. God wants not only hearers but doers not only believers but those who practice what they believe not only people with noble thoughts and purposes but noble deeds

Let us cease to justify ourselves or others on mere good intentions For it is not every one that saith Lord Lord that shall enter into the kingdom of Heaven but he who doeth the will of my Father who is in Heaven

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Katie Dicky s Mother Clash As Madge Arrives

FOR a startled second after Katie had flung herself upon me clasping my knees and sobbing hysterically no one else uttered a sound Dicky with his masculine dread of a scene pretended to be absorbed in the luggage and from the corner of my eye I saw Jim—evidently figuring that I could deal with his wailing wife better than he could—duck back around the corner of the house from which he had advanced to help us with the luggage.

My mother in law seemed frozen into a pose of haughty amazement, and in the background I saw a plump middle aged woman in nurses uniform in a waiting attitude ready for instant service or for self-effacement whichever should be required

The next instant my mother in law went into action

Katie Her voice whiplashed the name in top-sergeant fashion Get up from your knees this instant Let go of Mrs Graham and stop that howling You are a disgrace to yourself and to the family Mrs Graham ought to discharge you this minute without a recommendation

Even in the nervous stress of the moment—for I knew that I had my work cut out for me during the next half hour—I had to choke back a laugh at this superbly ridiculous statement as my mother-in-law s

She knew as well as I did and as did Katie that Katie and Jim were my fathers employes paid by him but turned over to Dicky and me as was the rest of the farm household because my father wished to know nothing of the cares of the household He asked only for seclusion and comfort on the days when he was free from the government secret work which happened just now to be taking him away from us on a dangerous and mysterious mission

This seclusion he had in the soundproof rooms in the upper part of the farmhouse wing and the comfort that went with it was his mostly because of the attention to his every want which Katie and Jim paid him I could imagine his face if he came home—God grant my frightened soul whispered that he does come home —to find those faithful souls banished

There was another angle of the situation with which my mother in law was familiar but of which he evidently had lost sight in her anger at Katie If Katie and Jim should leave just at this juncture there would be no one to do the work at the farmhouse Because of the imminent arrival of my fathers twin brother whom I never had seen but who was to impersonate my father for the duration of the mission in which he was engaged we dared not take into the farmhouse anyone who was not already in the secret of the substitution.

Even the fiercest tried and true neighbors were being kept away with the story of my fathers serious illness and the deception was being given an air of truth by the presence in the house of a secrecy sworn trained nurse—the woman who was even now standing waiting in the back of the hall

My mother in law must be angry indeed with a hysteria almost equaling Katies I reflected, if she were forgetting all these things She risked not only the loss of Katie and Jim with the hardship their going would entail but the certainty of my fathers just anger when he should return

Or—a more plausible explanation of her behavior came to me—was she in her sons paralance running a colossal bluff? She evidently was extremely angry at Katie and bent upon punishment for real or fancied derelictions of duty and insolence the two cardinal sins in servants According to my doughty mother-in-law, the Decalogue trained along in third place

But whether bluff or earnest, her gage of battle did not go unlifted.

Katies inarticulate sobs changed to articulate and furious words though she disobeyed every command my mother in law had given her

Instead of getting up and loosening her clasp of my knees she tightened it so that I was actually afraid she would pull me to the ground And to from stopping the noise she was making she increased the volume of sound as she made furious reply to my mother in law

Oh! oh oh she wailed at the top of her voice To tink I ha e to stand dere after all dese years I work mine fingers to bone work till I drop like old worn out horse But you tink I stand dose words from anybody?

She twisted her body around un

Just Things

— BY EDNA B. DUTTON —

St. Patrick's Day.

ALL Praise to St. Patrick,
Who brought to our mountains etc., etc

If they don't sing it, at least this and strains similar in sentiment will be in the hearts of thousands of folks next Tuesday whether they are right from the "auld" sod or generations removed from the home of the Blarney stone It's a long span of years from the year 432 to 1936 but their children and their children's children always remember St Patrick himself tells of his early life in the following simple manner

I Patrick sinner most unlearned of all
The faithful and of many most despised
Had for my father Deacon Calphurnius
Of Presbyter Tollius of a place called Bannow of Tibernia near Wexford
He owned his country dwelling and it was there
I suffered capture when not yet a priest
Sold as a slave into Ireland and like a slave was forced for six years to care for the cattle on the mountains midst snow, rain and ice After six years he made his escape and under Divine guidance returned to the home of his beloved parents After studying for the priesthood in Rome he set out with 12 other missionaries for Ireland where his doctrine of meekness and brotherly love completely won the Irish nation It was the three-leaf shamrock plucked from the soil of Holy Ireland that St Patrick used to explain the supernatural truth of the Blessed Trinity

And while they gathered closer still about him
He stooped and plucked a shamrock from the sod
And pointing to the leaves and stem he told them
Of three immortal persons in one God

St Patrick died at Saul on Strangford Loch March 17 493 and his body was translated to the cathedral of Down in 1186

A Lament.

CAME to our desk recently a sort of a lament which probably has more appeal from a standpoint of sentiment than rhyme and meter Who the author is we do not know likewise from whence it came It's yours without the asking.

When I cash in and this poor race is run
My chores performed and all my errands done
I plead a boon folks who mock my life here
Will weeping bend at me my lowly bier
Nothing large a lordly worth
Or the kingly pelf
Let me the great in ordinary of
Art friends will or strive how
I lie on that ill
With I look down (or up) a million miles
Just would I why these people
Be glad I was here my spirit flies
When I rest in I shall not care a pin
Let all the pains that I aged up
Be all
Rest and silent in my narrow bed
I shall not heed the tinkers of the bell
Let all the pomp and all the vain display
Will I just toss and feathers blown away
But let me now while I am on the earth
Hear gathered [illegible] my friends
[illegible] with—
Oh Lord me what a [illegible] happiness
And fill my full [illegible] and [illegible]
Bread [illegible] like honeys spread in brie
Let wait in [illegible] I think when I am dead

FARM BUREAU FORMS ELECTRIC COMPANY

Cooperative Organization To Promote Electrification Program

Formation of an organization to carry on the Farm Bureau's program of rural electrification in Marion county was completed last night at a meeting in the bureau offices in Marion.

Eleven interested farmers were named to act as incorporators. They signed articles of incorporation for Marion Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc. and forwarded them to the secretary of state today for filing.

The incorporators elected a board of seven trustees who in turn elected officers. The officers are F. A. Davidson of Grand Prairie township president; W. H. Uncapher of Big Island township vice president; S. C. Loyer of Richland township secretary and treasurer. In addition to them members of the board of trustees are E. C. Wilson of Bowling Green township; J. E. Beers of Scott township; Harry Hall of Salt Rock township and J. H. Coon of Big Island township.

The only incorporators not named as trustees are Homer Kife of Tully township; Clyde Hinamon of Grand Prairie township; Jack Hickman of Grand township and Allen Longacre of Claridon township.

The organization will continue the Farm Bureau's program of obtaining individual application for electric service in rural areas in preparation for formal filing of an application for a loan of federal funds to finance proposed construction of rural lines.

250 SPORTSMEN AT LARUE HEAR TALKS

causes the terrific toll every year due to lack of cover, shelter and food and you have the wild life problem in Ohio described.

Work with Farmer

"We hope to work out a plan for farmers to raise rabbits, game birds and other wild life on their farms and receive compensation for doing so from the state division of conservation.

We hope to have organizations of sportsmen throughout the state make arrangements with farmers to feed birds and some animals, especially during the cold months of the year when natural foods are shut off by snow and ice.

We hope to encourage the construction of small dams through out the state to provide better habitat for game fish. The LaRue Sportsmen's club has set a model program for the state to follow in the dam it has already built and the others it is now undertaking.

Incidentally, while we're on the subject of fishing I want to say that Ohio needs a universal fishing permit to cost 50 cents applicable to every fisherman, instead of the present $1 fee for those who use a reel."

Ozark Ripley, known in private life as James B. Thompson, attended the LaRue meeting on a speaking tour that will take him to New York City and points in New Jersey by May 1 when he will leave for Canada to spend several months. He divides his time between homes in Chattanooga, Tenn., and Canada. In his talk last night he told of some of his most interesting experiences fishing in Canadian waters and hunting birds in different parts of this country. He showed several reels of moving pictures of northern fishing grounds.

He said the northern Indians showed a thorough understanding of the fundamentals of conservation when they prescribed (1) care to prevent forest fires (2) protection for the female of the species of large game and (3) bag limits. They naturally, without the need of laws will not take more game than is needed, he said.

One of the biggest things in conservation, Mr. Ripley asserted, is the American boy—we must help conserve our wild life for the sake of the boys today who are to be the hunters of tomorrow. They'll want to hunt when they become young men, he said.

Cyril T. Cuthery, president of the club, introduced Dr. H. A. Hoopes who served as toastmaster. He called upon Robert John, son, secretary of Lawrence Woodnell conservation commissioner, who was unable to attend. W. E. Owens, chief engineer of division; O. E. Clifton, supervisor of the department's education division; H. E. West of the division's bureau of accounting and Henry J. Pfeiffer of Kenton, a member of the state conservation council.

Others introduced included C. F. Blakeman, conservation officer for Ohio district No. 2; Frank Ranke, officer for district No. 1 and county game protectors as follows: O. H. Neimeyer of Marion county; Howard Langstaff of Hardin county; William Kirby and A. A. Pharr of Union county; Albert Okk of Hardin county and T. B. Warner of Wyandot county.

Miss DeMarll Hafer, Jean Montgomery, Betty Clements and Anna J. Freeman of LaRue furnished a musical program during a dinner that opened the program. Rev. G. W. Herd of the LaRue M. E. church pronounced invocation.

Blonds Are Passe and Brunets now Rule, Says Artist

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 14—The data on the question of blondes vs. brunets vs. redheads was brought up to date today with an artist's pronouncement that nobody pays any attention to Harlow nowadays.

"There is no doubt about it, the blond has passed," said Russell Patterson, illustrator, designer, puppeteer and beauty contest judge.

"This is a red-haired era, but women's hair gradually is getting darker. In another year or so everybody will be wanting brunets."

This is a good thing, he said, for brunets have been a drug on the market for 15 years and are getting discouraged.

Blonds really passed with the flapper but nature rescued it until Jean Harlow and Alice Faye turned up with red hair. Patterson declared.

LEGISLATORS OPPOSE NEW PROCESSING TAX

Levies Similar to Those in Defunct AAA Frowned Upon in Election Year

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 14—Sentiment adverse to clamping new processing taxes on commodities as suggested by President Roosevelt appeared today among legislators studying the taxation problem.

As one part of his program President Roosevelt suggested excise taxes similar to the old AAA processing levy. Subsequently the agriculture department submitted a specific plan designed to raise $221,000,000 in revenue by levies on some 38 classes and sub-classes of farm commodities and competing products.

The levies would cover a wider range of products than the AAA taxes struck down by the supreme court but the rates would be lower.

However some legislators are reluctant to levy processing taxes especially in a campaign year. They have argued that the levies would be somewhat in the nature of sales taxes tending to raise the cost of living.

Chairman Samuel B. Hill, Democrat of Washington, contended that a new corporation profits tax schedule on which members of his committee agreed yesterday would raise the $620,000,000 which the President seeks to obtain through this method of taxation.

NEW CLASH REPORTED ON RUSSIAN BORDER

Moscow Told Japanese Troops Fired on Soviet Workmen Dredging River.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 14—Word of another explosive incident reached Soviet Russia's capital today from the faraway borders where Bolshevik and Japanese spheres of influence meet.

Tardy dispatches from Khabarovsk said motorized Japanese Manchukuan soldiers driving along the Manchukuan side of the far eastern frontier had fired upon Soviet workmen engaged in dredging the Amur river.

The incident occurred March 5, the dispatches stated. After thirty shots were fired the laborers working on the Soviet side of the river were forced to flee. There was no mention of casualties.

It was by no means the first such trouble in the Khabarovsk area although even more frequent clashes have arisen to the west between the Japanese Manchukuans and the forces of Soviet-backed outer Mongolia.

ROOSEVELT'S OHIO VOTES ARE ASSURED

son slate is Charles R. Frederickson, Coshocton industrialist.

The presence of national committeeman Walter F. Brown, postmaster general in the Hoover cabinet, on the favorite son delegate-at-large slate Borah backers said is proof that the delegation is really intended for Hoover organization leaders countered by pointing to the informal action of the state committee last December in outlawing the former President as a candidate.

New Concord Man Signed

While Borah forces were able to qualify only seven out of a possible eight candidates for delegate-at-large because of the last minute withdrawal of Judge J. H. C. Lyon of Youngstown, they entered Ralph G. Marshall of New Concord as an alternate-at-large. If elected along with the Borah delegate slate, he would supply the Idaho senator with the full complement of eight votes-at-large.

Borah forces were unable to qualify delegate candidates in five of the 22 districts and only one in another district, thus giving him a slate of 33 district delegates against the full favorite son complement of 44. They claimed however one delegate on the favorite son slate, Sherman H. Bagle of Gallipolis in the 10th district.

No Borah delegates were entered in the 4th, 5th, 10th, 11th and 22nd districts. Only one was entered in the 1st.

County Counts Cost of Severe Winter Weather

Drop in School Attendance and Heavy Damage to Highways Chief Results of Recent Zero Seige.

County officials in charge of roads and schools today looked back over one of the most severe winters in the history of Marion, weather records and surveyed the drop in school attendance and heavy road damage of approximately $26,000 directly attributable to the abnormal weather of late January and February.

At times during the period of bitter cold and heavy snowfall that at times blocked a number of rural roads, all but two of the county's 13 centralized schools were closed. Others were opened and closed intermittently during the prolonged siege of cold.

Average daily attendance figures for rural schools compiled by Miss Francis Imbody, clerk in the office of County Schools Supt. D. T. Mills, dropped from 2,715 in November to 2,607 in December and 2,458 in January. Reports from nine schools for February attendance indicated a further drop of five per cent.

These figures, however, do not reflect the full effect of the extreme weather on attendance because days when rural schools were closed because of low attendance were not considered in computing the average daily attendance.

Road damage, due to freezing and thawing was estimated by County Surveyor Carl H. Tozzer to be at least 10 per cent heavier this year than in ordinary years. This he said, probably is due to the fact the freeze during the extremely cold period when the mercury went as low as 18 below zero penetrated deeper than in ordinary years. The damage came to light when the ground thawed softening road foundations and causing bulges in the pavement.

An unusually troublesome condition the surveyor said has been encountered in several parts of the county where the road top has disintegrated in spots and mud has virtually boiled through to the surface. Repair of these spots will be costly, the surveyor said.

Surveyor Tozzer said it is almost impossible to estimate accurately the extent of the weather damage to the roads but he placed the figure roughly at $20,000. Much of the damage will be offset by the 1936 road repair program which will consist largely of routine work carried on from year to year. In addition approximately $2,000 probably will have to be spent to repair the worst breaks in county road pavements caused by the weather, it was estimated.

WORK RELIEF SETUP LAUNDED BY HOPKINS

Leader Also Denounces Policies and Record of Hoover Administration

NEW YORK, March 14—Declaring that new deal work relief is being assailed maliciously for political and selfish personal reasons, Harry L. Hopkins entered a two-fold defense today.

The works progress chief said the program is relieving distress and adding brick and good sound dollars to our national wealth at the same time.

In a speech delivered at a meeting of the United Neighborhood houses and broadcast nationally, Hopkins slashed at the Hoover administration.

"The record of the previous administration," he said, "is characterized by failure to provide food and shelter for destitute citizens, the failure to provide work for the millions of unemployed, the failure to take one substantial step to allay the fears and misgivings of a nation."

Among Scores of Fascists and Monarchists Accused of Fomenting Trouble

MADRID, March 14 — Spain's young Leftist government today arrested Jose Antonio Primo De Rivera, son of the late dictator, in a roundup of scores of leading Fascists and Monarchists accused of fomenting recurrent disorders.

Young Primo De Rivera, whose father General Miguel Primo De Rivera once ruled Spain with an iron hand, was charged with implication in yesterday's disturbances.

He is the leader of Spanish Fascists.

Dozens of other rightists were arrested on every hand, accused of stirring up the trouble which has plagued Spain since last month's general elections.

Police headquarters was jammed with persons under inquisition. The Monarchist deputy, Dr. Jose Mario Albiñana, was among those detained.

FORMER MARION YOUTH TO SING WITH CLUB HERE

George L. Headley Is Soloist with Ohio State Singers To Appear Here Monday Night.

A former Marion resident, George L. Headley will be the vocal soloist with the Ohio State university glee club when the club sings Monday night at 8:15 at the Central Junior High school.

Mr. Headley, a baritone is the son of Mrs. Inez Headley of Columbus, formerly of Marion and the grandson of Mrs. J. W. Headley of 110 John street. He was graduated from Harding High school in 1930.

His selections Monday night will be Wolframs Lied an den Abendstern from Wagners Tannhauser, Devotion by Strauss and The Last Hour by Cramer. Mr. Headley is a junior at the university and is majoring in music.

The program for Monday night was announced today by Louis H. Dieterle, director of the club. The Girl Reserves of Harding High school will sponsor the program to raise money for the purchase of new uniforms for the high school band.

Perhaps the most interesting as well as the most difficult number the club will sing is Kubla Khan, by Sir Granville Bantock. This work is receiving its first American hearing and its first hearing outside of England on the club's present tour.

Prof. Dieterle is a friend of Sir Granville, their friendship dating back five years at which time Mr. Dieterle then at the University of Iowa performed for the first time in America Sir Granville's choral symphony, Vanity of Vanities. Two years ago copies of Kubla Khan were received and studied by Prof. Dieterle who felt the score was too difficult for any university glee club but at the insistence of the club members he was prevailed upon to put it in rehearsal. Now the club has mastered and memorized the work.

The entire Kubla Khan of Coleridge is used as the text. The work will be sung as the last number on the Monday night program.

The club will open the program with Grant Us to Do With Zeal by Bach, Vere Languores Nostros by Lotti, Your Voice Raise by Handel and Credo by Gretchaninoff.

Following Mr. Headley's numbers and preceding the intermission a men's ensemble will sing Ave Maria by Arcadelt. Now is the Month of Maying by Morley, 'Ave Maris Stella, by Grieg, Brunette, a Seventeenth century folk song and Song of the Jolly Roger by Candish.

The second half of the program will open with the club singing With Drooping Wings by Purcell, Sweet Day Is Softly Dying, an old French song, Oh Where Art Thou, a Scotch folk song arranged by Whitehead and When From the Craggy Haunts by Rhodes.

The "Kubla Khan" number will be preceded by a violin selection by Loren Peters.

Tickets for the program may be purchased from members of the sponsoring body or at the door Monday night.

C. Bosca, president of the concern, filed an answer at once joining Mrs. Fraber in the request for dissolution of the company. Judge Hector S. Young fixed Monday, April 6, for a hearing on the petition for dissolution and appointed T. F. O'Connor, now associated with the concern as receiver to conserve the company's assets pending the hearing.

Mrs. Fraber's judgment was taken on a chattel mortgage loan made last Oct. 4. The judgment was taken automatically because the mortgage note was in cognovit form.

In her petition for dissolution she asserts the company's liabilities amount to more than $26,000, a figure she said is greater than the assets. She said she is the largest single creditor.

Since January the plant has been operated by Hugh Wells of Cleveland, selected by a creditors' committee in an unsuccessful effort to make the company solvent, a company official said.

Bosca, Inc., was moved to Marion from Urbana in 1932 and is located in the former Gardner Tupper & Dye Co. building on Lincoln avenue.

J. W. Jacoby is counsel for both Mrs. Fraber and Mr. Bosca.

LOBBYIST FOR V.F.W. FIRED BY VAN ZANDT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 14 — George K. Brobeck, one of the best known legislative representatives on Capitol Hill, was out of a job today as a result of disclosures before the senate lobby committee.

He was removed last night as representative of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, a post paying $4,600 a year. National Commander James E. Van Zandt accused him of utility lobbying activities and said he broke faith with our organization when he accepted fees from outside sources.

Questioned before the lobby committee recently Brobeck said William J. Hagenah, counsel for Standard Gas & Electric Co., hired him in 1935 to keep the big middlewestern holding company informed of the progress of the Roosevelt utility holding company control bill.

ITALY'S TROOPS HEAD FOR LAKE TANA AREA

By The Associated Press

ROME, March 14—Marching into lush jungle country a far western Fascist column moved down the Ethiopian Sudanese frontier lands today, driving a wedge toward Lake Tana and Great Britain's sphere of influence.

One of four full army corps in motion on the northern African front, the western column's advance guard was nearing the important trail junction of Nogura in the northwestern corner of Ethiopia not more than 100 miles from the great inland sea which supplies the life-blood of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan's Blue Nile.

South and east of it warplanes were reported to have bombed Ethiopian concentrations in the Lake Tana section north of the Amharic capital of Gondar. Gondar lies but 33 miles north of Lake Tana.

Blazing Meteor Streaks Across New Jersey Sky

Roar and Light Awakens People as Earth Shakes and Windows Rattle.

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, N. J., March 14—A flaming meteor so near the earth that it rattled windows and awoke many persons from slumber shot across the sky over central New Jersey early today and then vanished apparently into the Atlantic ocean.

The speeding object lighted up the countryside for many miles and was visible in buildings as far as Washington, D. C., approximately 225 miles away.

Air tremors from the fiery body were reported felt many miles north and south of Newark.

Policemen on their rounds told of seeing a vivid blue and white flash in the sky followed some minutes later by deep rumbling as of firing of cannon on a distant battlefield.

J. Templeton, a United Airlines pilot flying a plane to Newark airport from Cleveland, said that soon after 2:30 a. m. he saw a brilliant light overhead that blotted out the light of the moon.

He feared at first the flash would envelop his plane but it quickly disappeared in an easterly direction over the Atlantic ocean.

Don Johnston, Eastern Airlines pilot reported by wireless to the airport that he saw a great ball of light at 2:53 a. m. as he was flying over Virginia.

Residents of Trenton reported seeing the light almost directly over the city. It was so brilliant that street lights were dim by contrast.

STRIKERS AT AKRON ASSEMBLE FOR VOTE

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., March 14—Union rubber workers assembled for a vote on the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company's peace proposal today with their leaders withholding any intimation of whether they favored or opposed the plan for returning more than 14,000 employes to the picketed plants.

At the closed mass meeting the striking Goodyear local of the United Rubber Workers of America was to hear first from its negotiating committee. After discussion from the floor printed ballots were to be handed out.

Picketing which began over the laying off of tire builders in plant No. 2 is in its fourth week.

The company's proposal included return of all workers as of Feb. 12 without discrimination, advance notice to be given of changes in wage rates before they are posted, lists of contemplated layoffs to be made available for inspection and any change in the 30 to 36 hour week for tire workers to be adjusted with the employes.

DAVEY AND YOUNG WILL CLASH IN MAY

Summit county auditor Elmer J. Carey of Kenton, Joseph T. Ferguson of Barberton and John H. Turner of Shaker Heights.

Ignore Treasury Job

The state treasurer's office was the least sought. Harry S. Day, Republican incumbent, sought renomination and was opposed by Lewis A. Hanford of Cleveland. Clarence H. Kniseley of Bainbridge was the only Democrat to seek the position held by a Republican since 1919.

Two leading Democrats vied for the lieutenant governorship. House Speaker J. Freer Bittinger, chief patronage dispenser for the Davey administration, lined up against Paul P. Yoder of Eaton, senate floor leader and frequent critic of administration policies.

Five Republicans contested for this position among them Paul M. Herbert of Columbus, nominee in 1934.

Dennie Dunlavy of Ashtabula, one of Gov. Davey's closest advisers, Herbert S. Duffy of Columbus, severe Davey critic, and Lucas County Prosecutor Frazier Reams gave Poulson another problem in weeding out candidates for attorney general.

Seek Bricker's Job

Thomas J. Herbert, C. B. McClintock of Canton, John H. Price of Cleveland were in the Republican attorney generalship race.

Contesting for the secretary of state's position were Democrats William J. Kennedy of Cleveland and Dwight L. Matchette of Greenville, Ohio, senate clerk, and Republicans Earl Griffith, Mt. Gilead publisher, Edward J. Hummel of Cincinnati and Dale Stump of Columbus.

Secretary of State George Myers entered the race for one of two vacancies on the supreme court bench. He and Judge Wilbur P. Stephenson present court members and Democrat of West Union will be unopposed.

Judge Roy H. Williams of Sandusky also a court member, and William L. Hart of Alliance, who once served a six week term on the state bench were unopposed for the Republican nomination.

140 Enter Race

In the congressional race besides the 21 seeking the regular congressman at large terms there were 140 candidates in the state's 22 districts for nomination to congress. All incumbents sought re-election except 11th District Rep. Mel G. Underwood who recently received a federal judgeship appointment.

The 17th or Youngstown district led the list with the most candidates—14 ten Democrats and four Republicans for one position.

Among the congressman at large delegates was Lieut. Gov. Harold G. Mosier of Cleveland who announced as a candidate for governor but withdrew and promised to support Young.

Besides Mosier on the Democratic side for nominations for the regular congressman at large places were Milton S. Cox of McArthur, chief of the state bridge division; Francis W. Durbin of Lima, son of W. W. Durbin, registrar of the U. S. treasury; Joseph W. Fichter of Hamilton, former assistant state director of education; State Rep. Jesse J. Gilbert of Farmersville; John McSweeney, former congressman and state welfare director; John W. Pattison, son of the late Gov. John W. Pattison; Kent A. Buchanan of Cleveland; Joseph J. Devney of Cleveland and William C. Groves of Maple Heights.

Among the Republicans was George H. Bender a Republican congressman at large nominee in 1934; former U. S. Sen. Charles Dick of Akron, former State Sen. J. Eugene Roberts of Youngstown; former State Rep. L. L. Marshall of Euclid, M. Herbert Hoover of Akron, Raymond J. Jeffreys of Lakewood, Alexander H. Martin of Cleveland, Benjamin F. Reading of Toledo, S. A. Ringer of Lockburg and Joe Thomas of Cleveland.

Harding Cagers Win; Play in District Finals Tonig

Score Two-Point Victory Over Columbus Central

Presidents To Meet Newark at Delaware in Windup of Tournament Play Tonight.

BY CHARLES HOSTETTER
Marion Star Sports Writer

SQUEEZING out a 26 to 24 victory over the Columbus Central High team, Marion's Harding High Presidents moved into the final round of the Class A District basketball tournament to be played tonight at the Ohio Wesleyan gymnasium in Delaware.

Playing in the central district finals for the first time in four years, the Harding quintet will meet Newark High in the championship game at 9 o'clock tonight. Columbus Central and East High quintets eliminated in the semi finals last night will meet in a preliminary consolation game an hour earlier.

Marion's two point victory over the Kusler coached Central cagers came after a thrilling battle during which the lead changed hands often with neither team holding a big advantage at any stage of the game. The Red and Black cagers were out in front 7 to 4 when the first period ended but trailed 14 to 13 at the half. On the short end of a 22 to 20 score at the start of the final quarter the Presidents registered three goals and held their opponents to a pair of charity tosses to win the game.

Newark breezed into the finals by trouncing the highly touted Columbus East team 40 to 20. Indications are that Harding cagers will be engaged in the toughest battle of their career when they take the floor tonight against the rangy Newark team which embodies speed, power and accurate floor work. Coached by C. E. Orr the Newark squad is composed of two seniors, two juniors and a sophomore, all experienced ball handlers who have aided the team in creating an enviable season and tournament record.

Marion Fans Present

Scores of Marion residents were on hand last night to witness the thrilling game and support the Harding quintet. The Wesleyan gymnasium was packed to near capacity by enthusiastic fans who followed their teams into the semi finals of the district meet. With Harding making a strong bid for the district championship tonight an even larger delegation of Marion followers was expected to invade Delaware for the crucial contest. The importance of the game is obvious with the victorious team not only gaining district honors but receiving the solo right to represent the district in the Columbus finals next week.

The Presidents display of basketball which ranged from mediocrity to intermittent brilliant performances kept the team in hot water during the entire game.

Bob Minard substitute at a forward position gained scoring honors by flipping three neat buckets at important points in the game and getting two of the three final quarter field goals which led to victory. Tierney, Harding's center and ace North Central Ohio scorer managed to drop in two action shots and a foul while Lamar Faught consistent high scorer in previous tournament games was successful in two attempts from the field. Faught's low score was probably due to the fact that Castricone picked as a Columbus all-city guard for two successive years was keeping a watchful eye on the Marion forward during Harding offensive play. Wilbur Evans and George Conroy turned in excellent performances at the guard positions and in addition Evans managed to break away on two occasions to sink fielders for Harding. Frazier unable to score from the field or in his one foul attempt nevertheless played an excellent game as did substitutes Huntsman and Caldwell.

Weak On Free Throws

The scoring record reveals that Harding while more consistent on field attempts fell down on free throws. In 40 tries for goals the Marion team hit 12 times while Central made only nine of 63 attempts. From the foul line the Presidents registered twice on 13 throws and their opponents made six of 12 charity tosses.

Central cagers took a 3 to 0 lead in the opening minutes after registering the initial points on Rehmert's goal and Bowsher's foul. Tierney tipped the ball into the basket when Conroy's sucker shot rolled off the hoop. Conroy made one of two foul shots and then followed in with a goal to place Harding in a 6 to 3 lead. Bowsher scored on a free throw but Harding took a 7 to 4 lead as Faught's field goal swished through the net as the quarter ended.

Evans scored from the field for Central and Rehmert added a foul to knot the score at 7 7 as the second period got under way. Tierney's free throw gave Harding a one point lead which was reversed as Bowsher dumped in a bucket for Central. Evans and Faught were successful on follow in shots and Harding forged ahead 12 to 9. Rehmert alone under the basket scored for Central and his team mates Evans and Machtell each scored from the field to gain a 16 to 12 lead. Courtright was substituted in Central's lineup as Machtell left the game on personal fouls. Evans scored on a long shot for Harding and the half ended with Central leading 18 14.

Minard and Conroy scored from the field and Harding led 18 to 15 only to lose the advantage as Bowsher, Castricone and Evans registered goals to give Central a 21 18 advantage. Evans added a foul for Central and as the period ended Huntsman scored a goal for Harding. Central held a 22 20 advantage at the end of the third quarter.

Minard's shot from the side of the court tied the score and after Courtright converted on a free throw for Central Minard repeated with an identical goal to put Harding ahead 24 23. With five minutes to play Central staged a desperate scoring attack but Marion guards permitted their opponents only hurried attempts. The team worked the ball in deliberately and smoothly and Tierney unguarded under the basket scored Harding's final points. Heady basketball kept the Central cagers from scoring on several occasions and in the final seconds of the contest they succeeded only in an attempt from the free throw line.

The box score of the game follows:

TWO HORSES ONCE NEAR DEATH IN RACE

'Come Back' After Narrow Escapes To Seek New Honors

By The Associated Press

NEWMARKET England—Two horses which have been near death will seek to win the greatest of all steeplechases—the Grand National at Aintree late this month.

One of these is J. H. Whitney's Royal Ransom which staked himself badly in his first race in himself badly in his first race in himself badly and almost bled to death. It took his trainer a year to build him up again and he is attempting to do what three other chasers of Jock Whitney have failed to do win the big Aintree event.

The other Belted Hero owned by Lord Penrhyn had a close call last winter and nearly died from blood poisoning. He recovered under skillful treatment and has since won over hurdles. He will make his big effort at Aintree.

JOHN HENRY LEWIS WINS FROM M'AVOY

Takes 15-Round Decision from Middle and Light Heavy Champ of England.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK March 14—John Henry Lewis a long brown fellow with lightning in his arms has thrown a pall over the fistic hopes of Old England.

In 15 bruising rounds last night Lewis belted out a clear cut decision over Jock McAvoy middle and light heavyweight champion of Great Britain.

Possessing a sharp wallop that has laid two American fighters low in early rounds McAvoy had been an even money bet to lift the light heavyweight diadem from the Lewis brow.

He met a cleverer boxer however and a more durable one who fed him a continuous stream of leather that cut his nose and ear and for the most part kept him from balancing for a telling shot. Lewis at 172¼ was four pounds heavier than the Briton.

For five rounds it was fairly even but after that the tall muscular Negro stepped out from and stayed there.

CORNELL PICKS SNAVELY

George Kojak became a backstroke swimmer when his team at Roosevelt High Chicago needed a man for that event. Under the guidance and hand of Stanley Brauninger at the Lake Shore Athletic club he has developed into the outstanding backstroke swimmer in the world.

Two years ago as a 17 year old youngster he finished third in his first national 100-meter championship event. He showed that nervousness and inexperience cost him first place by coming back in the medley and swimming his leg one second faster than the time made by the winner of the individual race. He has not been beaten since in his specialty and has broken just about every record on the books from 50 yards to 1'00 meters.

Last fall he toured Europe and engaged in 32 winning races. He took the measure of Hans Schwartz champion of Germany 15 times.

If Kiefer Van de Weghe and Kojac should finish one two three in the backstroke at Berlin it would atone for the clean sweep the Japanese swimmers accomplished at Los Angeles in humiliating our swimmers.

High Hurler

Baseball Coach Ray Fisher of the University of Michigan believes he has the tallest pitcher in captivity — John Geo. 6-foot 8 southpaw. The towering curve and smoke ball artist allowed Northwestern three scattered hits and struck out 15 in one game last season.

Daily Pattern for Home Use

BY ANNE ADAMS

THIS WARM WEATHER FROCK IS FOR SPORTS, FOR COTTON AND FOR STYLE

Here's one of the first and prettiest of warmweather sports frocks. See how simple its design? How utterly right and right it is for any sport from playing tennis to driving a car. You can participate or merely spectate in this, or adopt it for porch and garden wear. Note the new shoulder-breadth in those short sleeves? They'll be grand and cool on blistering afternoons, as well the frock itself if you make it up in pique, peasant cloth, shantung or washable crepe silk. It's such an easy frock to make, too, that it might almost be called a "Beginner's fashion," which of course means just play for the more experienced. Be sure to "garnish" with bright buttons! The Anne Adams Sewing Instructor is included with this pattern.

Pattern 2653 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 8¼ yards 36 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Send for your copy of our Anne Adams Pattern Book! You'll like its foresighted advice on the latest patterns, fabrics, accessories, fashion trends. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

WAR FEARS DIM SO STOCKS RISE

Numerous Issues Climb One to Seven Points in Brisk Trade and Close is Strong.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 14—Fading of European war fears today brought one of the sharpest stock market rallies in several months.

In the first hour's buying rush numerous recently depressed issues leaped ahead 1 to around 7 points and the ticker tape fell behind floor transactions. Although the pace slowed later, the close was strong Transfers approximated 1,500,000 shares.

The list encountered some profit taking just before the finish but the majority of the leaders overrode this with little difficulty. Prices were around the best of the day as the final gong sounded.

Wheat suffered declines of a cent or more a bushel and cotton held to a narrow range Bonds followed stocks in retrieving much lost ground Foreign currencies also moved against the dollar.

Conspicuous share gainers included U S Steel Bethlehem, General Motors Chrysler Standard Oil of New Jersey Anaconda Allied Chemical Columbian Carbon Case International Harvester Deere du Pont Eastman Kodak American Telephone Western Union, Electric Power and Light Consolidated Gas, Union Pacific Santa Fe New York Central American Smelting Douglas Aircraft and General Electric.

Especially cheerful was the report of International Harvester for 1935 showing a net profit during the year of approximately $3 25 a common share This was the first year since 1930 that even the preferred dividends have been fully earned The company's sale for the year were 57 per cent ahead of the 1934 volume

STRIKE IN NEW YORK SEEN NEARING END

Bambrick Meets with Mediation Committee Selected by Mayor LaGuardia.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 14—James J Bambrick, Building Service union strike leader, said the possibility of the two weeks' old strike being settled "is greater than ever before" in accepting an invitation today to meet with Mayor LaGuardia's mediation committee.

Bambrick, who is directing the strike which has affected 2,800 office buildings, apartments and hotels in New York, and his counsel Edward McGuire, met with the five mediators appointed by the mayor

Bambrick praised the mayor's selections as "men of the highest caliber"

Pending the outcome of the conferences with the mediation board Bambrick said no effort would be made to extend the strike.

The board was ordered by the mayor "to establish the obstacles to prompt settlement of the strike and to make recommendations for immediate termination of the deadlock"

A few minutes earlier the realty board made a new plea for settlement. It admitted that 85 per cent of the replacement workers "would not be satisfactory under ordinary conditions" and offered to dismiss them The other 15 per cent, it said, would have to remain as permanent employes.
